

Navy Auto Source's hot wheels

By MC3 John Suits

The Navy Auto Source program was authorized by Congress and implemented by the Department of Defense to provide service members of overseas military communities a means of purchasing vehicles not typically available. Navy Auto Source is currently aboard USS Theodore Roosevelt (CVN 71) to offer Sailors a chance to purchase vehicles in order for them to have a means of transportation upon TR's arrival at its homeport after deployment.

- 1.) Aviation Boatswain's Mate (Fuel) 3rd Class Dylan Angeles reviews a pamphlet advertising Harley Davidson motorcycles.
- 2.) Don Pender, Navy Auto Source area program manager, shows Sailors program details about Navy Auto Source.
- 3.) Aircrew Survival Equipmentman 2nd Class (AW/SW) Sean Adams writes down specifications of a car he is interested in purchasing.
- 4.) Aviation Machinist's Mate 1st Class (AW) John Daclan looks at a Dodge Challenger booklet on the aft mess decks.
- 5.) Pender assists Adams with inputing specifications for a vehicle he is purchasing.
